You Are Changing Lives in Texas

Looking back on our fourth fiscal year 2022, I am grateful for every member of our corporate, nonprofit, and civic partners to our first-time investors to the individual change-seekers, volunteers and advocates who invested time to make an impact on our communities' youth.

Together, you've improved access to opportunities in real-life skills training, soft-skills training, higher education readiness, career readiness, leadership and hands-on internships.

We drove growth toward our TLT Leading Leaders Intern program goals and delivered on our commitment to advance diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging. And with new challenges in mind, we continued to adapt and innovate, expanding existing initiatives and launching new programs to drive transformational change in Texas.

When students missed out on learning opportunities because they lacked access, we worked with numerous high schools, colleges, and universities, providing remote opportunities. We continued to partner closely with schools and corporate leaders to drive strategic impact. This work included adding seven new intern positions to expand on our offering of thirteen positions a year ago.

Through your generosity we have been able to bring in-person programs to our youth, focusing on the skills that will help them be successful, self-sufficient individuals who are engaged with their community from a young age. New programs are offered thanks to you!

We're calling on each of you to show your confidence, your voice, and your support for achievement of the TLT-Tomorrow's Leaders Today's goals to drive lasting change in real-life skills training, soft-skills training, opportunities in higher education and career readiness, and growth in our youth leadership and hands-on internships.

Thank you for your commitment to creating change, opportunities, and growth for all Texas youth.

With gratitude,

Elaine Smith-Poyourow
